

Are you Engaged in your Child's Learning?

Part 6: Learn about the world together

Children learn by exploring new things and finding new interests.

- ✓ Provide your child with the opportunity to be exposed to new things, to explore new areas of interest and to participate in community or cultural events.
- ✓ Talk about your own learning. Share the message that learning is important at all ages.
- ✓ Everyday activities like shopping, cooking, eating, cleaning, gardening and playing provide opportunities to learn.
- ✓ Learn about the world by enjoying sporting, multicultural and other community events together.

Here is an interesting link ... "Children Thrive with Parental Involvement".

<http://www.schoolatoz.nsw.edu.au/en/wellbeing/development/children-thrive-on-parental-involvement>

Did you find this 'Parent Engagement' series useful?

Please email: honor.mcgill@dbb.catholic.edu.au as your feedback is always valued.

Learn about the world together

Children learn by exploring new things and finding new interests.

The infographic features a central photograph of a man and a young child in a garden. The man is wearing a dark jacket and shorts, and the child is wearing a blue jacket and shorts. They are both looking at a plant in a raised garden bed. The background shows other garden beds and a fence.

Four callouts provide additional information:

- Provide your child with the opportunity to be exposed to new things, to explore new areas of interest and to participate in community or cultural events.
- Learn about the world by enjoying sporting, multicultural and other community events together.
- Talk about your own learning. Share the message that learning is important at all ages.
- Everyday activities like shopping, cooking, eating, cleaning, gardening and playing provide opportunities to learn.

ACT Government